

Orit Orbach
Clarinet , Bass Clarinet (Classical , Klezmer)

Unique Clarinet Master Class and Workshops

Orit Orbach is one of the most prominent Israeli Clarinet and Bass Clarinet soloists, performing with many orchestras around the world. She is performing not only Classical concertos and chamber music, but also Ethnic and Jewish music (Klezmer), with orchestras as well as with different ensembles. For the past 10 years Orit leads the Eve's Women Band, with whom She has performed in Festivals and concerts all over the world , including the U.S., the Far East(Thailand, Vietnam, India), Scandinavia, The International Jazz and Ethnic Festivals in Johannesburg, London and Brookline, and Festivals in Spain, Germany, Greece, Yugoslavia, Poland and all over Israel.

Orit has been teaching Clarinet, Improvisation and special ethnic playing techniques for more than 15 years in Israel on a regular basis and all over the world, in Master Classes, workshops and seminars. She toured the U.S., Australia and Europe.

The Master Class and Workshops include:

1. "The Clarinet Playing according to Orit"

In her Master Class Orit introduces unique Clarinet and Bass Clarinet techniques and an individual musical interpretation, based on experience in performing the widest variety of repertoire which includes concertos, sonatas and different chamber music combinations. Orit also specializes in 20/21 century repertoire as well as in folklore and world music. She presents a bridge between the classical and the exotic folklore styles, with a special attention to the Jewish music.

2. A Workshop on "Performance Techniques"

A unique and essential workshop for everybody on “ performance technics”. It includes an interactive workshop on “ Performance anxiety”, (“Stage Fright”). This is a subject which Orit has researched and specializes in. She came up with her original techniques to reduce stress.

This workshop proved over the years, how helpful it is , and how much adds to the player’s self confidence and the ability to fulfill the potential to the fullest.

3. A Unique Master Class on "Klezmer Music" (The Jewish/Hassidic Music)

This workshop is open to Clarinetists and all instrumentalists. It involves experiencing and learning the special techniques , phrasings and interpretations which are commonly used in Klezmer music(The Jewish Gypsy music).

Orit introduces a wide variety of related repertoire as well, which can be played together during the workshop .

*All the participants are advised to bring their instruments for the Master Class and Workshops.
